IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1

I conduct sessions in silence, alone with the animal to avoid distractions.

2

I conduct sessions through a photo (telepathy does not require physical contact).

3

If an animal does not want to communicate or I have difficulties establishing contact, I will refund your payment.

4

I have the right to decline a communication with an animal.

5

I do not communicate with animals for fun. I approach every session with respect and seriousness.

6

I have the right to reschedule the session to another date due to circumstances beyond my control.

7

The number of questions asked by the owner is limited to a maximum of 10 questions due to time constraints (I often ask also classic, standard questions).
